Preface.

This Volume contains the Register of Christenings, Marriages, and Burials of Christ Church, Newgate, in the City of London, from 1538 to 1754.

The ancient monastical Church of the Grey Friars, or Franciscans, upon part of the site of which the present Christ Church, Newgate, now stands, was built in the early part of the fourteenth century.

Mr. W. J. Loftie, in his "History of London," says this Church must have been one of the most magnificent in London. It was 300 feet long, and had columns and pavements all of marble. It was renowned for the number of celebrated persons buried there, and for the monuments of alabaster and marble erected to their memory. A list of these monuments will be found in Volume 5 of "Collectanea Topographica et Genealogica."

Stow says: "The 13th January the 38th of Henry the Eighth, an agreement was made betwixt the King and the Mayor and Commonalty of London, dated the 27th of December, by which the said Grey-Friars' Church, with all the Edifices and ground, the Fratry, the Library, the Dortar, and Chapter House, the great Cloister and the lesser; tenements, gardens, and vacant grounds; lead, stone, iron, etc.; the Hospital of St. Bartholomew in West Smithfield, the Church of the same; the lead, bells, and ornaments of the same Hospital, with all the messuages, tenements, and appurtenances; the parishes of St. Nicholas and of St. Ewin and so much of St. Sepulchre's parish as is within the gate, called Newgate, were made one parish Church in the Grey-Friars' Church, and called Christ's Church, founded by King Henry the Eighth." At the same time two clergymen, one a Vicar and the other to be called the Visitor of Newgate, were appointed.

This Church was burnt in the Great Fire of London in September 1666. The present Church, which was commenced in 1687 and finished about 1704, is the work of Sir Christopher Wren, who utilized some of the marble pavement in the old Church for the floor of the present chancel.

Malcolm, in his "London Redivivum," says that the parish of St. Leonard's, Foster Lane, was united to that of Christ Church after the Fire of 1666. The Church of St. Leonard's, which was very small, stood on the west side of Foster Lane. No Registers of this Church before the Fire are known to exist.

The Register of Christ Church, Newgate, is written throughout on paper, and is kept at present in a safe in the south or Vicar's vestry of the Church. It is in a good state of preservation, there being only a few instances in which the original entries could not be transcribed on account of their having been injured.

The Christenings, Marriages, and Burials contained in the following pages are separately classed in the original books of the Register, and are comprised in five volumes, numbered respectively 0, 4, 1, 5, and 23.

Volume No. 0 contains the Register of Christenings, Marriages, and Burials from 1538 to 1588, and all the entries have been made in an uniform hand. As appears by a note in the book, it was written in 1586 by (or more probably under the direction of) the Churchwardens, and it is evidently a transcript from an earlier Register. In the Marriages, however, the year 1538 in the original has been altered by a later hand to 1542, and in the Burials to 1540, with a corresponding alteration in subsequent years until 1587. It has been thought better to adhere to the years as altered in the original book. From 1588 until after the Fire of London in 1666, when the Church was destroyed, the Register is missing. It was probably destroyed at the same time as the Church.

This volume also contains copies of the following: Grant, above referred to, dated 27 December 38 Henry VIII., from the King to the Mayor and Commonalty of London of the Church and House of the late Grey-Friars in the City of London; Valuation of Church goods in the parishes of St. Nicholas and St. Ewin, when the Lord Mayor took possession thereof; Petitions to Queen Elizabeth and the Archbishop of Canterbury, complaining of the neglect in the services, the singing, and other matters; Order of the Common Council, dated 19th July 1665, about repairs to the Church; Fees for burials, marriages, bell-ringing, etc.

Volume No. 4 is entitled A Register for Marriages, Births, and Burials within the Parish of Christ Church, London, collected from the time of the late dismal fire which happened in Anno 1666 to this present year 1672. By Francis Griffith and Charles Twyford, Churchwardens.

The Christenings extend from 3 March 1656 to 3 May 1724 (the first five relate to a period previous to the Fire); the Marriages from 23 March 1667 to 26 April 1724; the Burials from September 1666 to 4 May 1724. The earlier entries are in an uniform hand.

Volume No. 1 contains the Register of Burials from 18 May 1724 to 29 September 1812.

Volume No. 5 contains the Register of Marriages from April 1724 to 24 February 1754. At the end of this volume there is the following entry:

"December 9th, 1747. By Licence. Charles Spirey of the parish of St Sepulcker, London, Widr, and Catherine Loyd of the same parish, Widow. By Mr John Tayler. This Marriage was sollemnized in the Chappel of Newgate in Christ Church by the Reverend Mr John Tayler, and by him neglected to be Reigistered, and Reigistered by order of the Reverend Mr R. Sandiford to me. Daited the 29th of December, 1756, as appears on the Licence. B. Merriott."

Volume No. 23 contains the Register of Christenings from 12 May 1724 to 25 December 1812.

Many variations of spelling the same name occur, but the original has in all cases been followed.

Each page of the Register of Christenings from June 1691 to October 1704 has been subscribed by Thomas Staynoe, Vicar; from June 1708 to January 1713 by Samuel Barton, Vicar; and from February 1721 to March 1741 by Joseph Trapp, Vicar.

Each page of the Register of Marriages from March 1690 to June 1704 has been subscribed by Thomas Staynoe; from August 1708 to September 1713 by Samuel Barton; and from March 1722 to February 1742 by Joseph Trapp.

Each page of the Register of Burials from June 1691 to August 1704 has been subscribed by Thomas Staynoe; from January 1707 to December 1713 by Samuel Barton; and from March 1721 to April 1743 by Joseph Trapp.

From 24 January 1691 the dates of Birth as well as of Christening have been entered in the Register.

Names of public interest are comparatively few, but the burial on the 17th December 1691, of Richard Baxter, the eminent Nonconformist preacher and writer and the author of the "Saints' Everlasting Rest," is worthy of mention. The entry of the burial of "Sr Thomas Graves, Barronet, from Newgate," on the 19th November 1669, is also recorded, but his right to the title is, to say the least, doubtful. The words "from Newgate" frequently follow the entries of burial for about sixty years after the Fire. In many cases they refer no doubt to prisoners who died from gaol fever, or other causes, part of the Prison being within the parish of Christ Church; but this explanation cannot be universally accepted.

The transcript of these Registers was made by Miss Morse, daughter of the late Dr. Morse, formerly Vicar of the Parish.

The Bird's-Eye View of the Old Grey-Friars' Church and Monastery, which will be found at the beginning of this Volume, has been reduced from a drawing by Mr. H. W. Brewer, and is now printed by kind permission of the Proprietor of the "Builder" newspaper.

The best thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. E. H. Pearce, M.A., the present Vicar, and to the Churchwardens, for their permission to print these Registers; as also to Mr. Albert Banister, the Parish Clerk, for the facilities he has afforded to enable the proof-sheets to be compared with the original books of Register.

* The Registers of Christenings, Marriages, and Burials each begin in the year 1538, but in the Marriages the year has been altered in the original to 1542, and in the Burials to 1540, with a corresponding alteration in subsequent years until 1587. It has been thought better to shew the years as altered in the original Registers.
